

Ryan White

Ryan has been an active part of this church family his whole life, and in 2010 officially became a member. Born and raised in this church himself, he is now raising his own family here with the support of his wife, Charissa. They have four children together; Elise, Nate, Zara and Levi, and they attend the morning service on Sundays. Over the years Ryan has enjoyed being involved in several different ministries, including serving on the sound and data team (2003-2016, 2021-Present), as a Friday night youth leader (2009-2014), a growth group leader (2017-2020) and most recently serving on the Committee of Management (2022).

Ryan is thoughtful, measured, faithful and hard-working, and he is always willing to get involved when help is needed.

Nick Woodward

Nick and his wife Danae started coming to Living Church at the start of 2019, when Nick spent six months as a student minister here. Since late 2019 he has been working as a surveyor. He served as a young adults leader at Living Church throughout 2019, and has been a growth group leader since 2020.

Lorraine Eastwell

Lorraine came to Living Church mid 2011 after moving to Brisbane. She had formerly been involved in children's ministry, women's ministry, camp catering and in church ministry with her husband. After joining Living church she soon became a member of a Growth group, and then a GG coach. She has regularly 'done life' with several women, and been involved in pastoral care issues. She was part of the selection committee during Covid lockdown and found it to be a great experience. She currently serves on the Committee of Management and church Board. Living Church has become 'her church' and she loves serving God through serving people.

Tim Collard

In 1985 a mate asked Tim along to Mansfield PFA (Presbyterian Fellowship of Australia) – a ministry of Camp Hill Presbyterian, which became Creek Road which became Living Church.

Chris and Tim married in the Camp Hill Presbyterian Church in 1992 (30 years!). Chris and Tim's daughters Alyssa and Lauren grew up in the Living Church community.

In the mid 90's (after 3 years living in remote Central Qld) Chris and Tim were challenged by Rev. David McDougall to get more involved in serving church as engaged members. Tim was drawn to serving with technology with Chris serving in finance. In 2013, Tim joined the staff team initially focussed on technology, later expanding his focus to include operations management, In August 2021 he departed to take up a role at Vision Christian Media. He has learned a lot about relying on God in church life and church leadership over his 7 years on the Living Church staff team. While on staff he served as a growth group leader for 3 years. He is currently serving on the video/livestream team and assists with ad-hoc technical support and sound desk.

Living Church is Tim and Chris' family's spiritual home. He looks forward to serving God wherever he leads.

Danae Woodward

In God's kindness Danae has been following Him since she gave her life to him as a child. She has been married to her dear Nick for 6.5 years now, and she they've had a baby girl, Evie, join their family this year. After completing a nursing degree and 5 years working as a registered nurse, Danae trained for ministry at Moore College in Sydney for 4 years along with Nick. Since 2019 she has been evangelising and discipling University students as a staff worker (like a pastor or chaplain) with the Australian Fellowship of Evangelical Students (AFES) at Griffith Uni. She serves as a growth group leader and upfront Welcomer at Living Church.

Sandra Hinrichson

Sandra has been a member of Living Church since arriving in Brisbane in 2009 and a regular attendee at a Growth Group since then. She has attended a number of different and diverse groups over the years, including at City South while it was a part of Living Church.

She has enjoyed and participated in ad hoc events through the years.

She has been a Founding Director of Church2Church since 2017, a not-for-profit charitable organisation administered by Living Church with the objective to support the growth in spiritual and emotional maturity, and effectiveness, of ministry leaders and their churches by:

- (i) equipping church and ministry leaders through the provision of resources
- (ii) discipling church and ministry leaders through the provision of mentoring
- (iii) supporting church and ministry leaders through the provision of process and technical training.

She was a member of the Living Church Committee of Management and the Board of Living Church from 2013 to 2020.

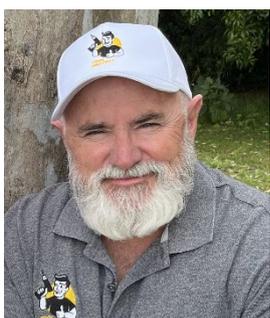

Gayle Neville

Gayle is currently working full time at Redland Hospital as a Clinical nurse in a Medical Surgical ward. Prior to that she had the privilege of being a stay-at-home mum for 13 years which allowed her to be involved in ministries in her local churches. Previously she had complete training as a Registered Nurse and Midwife.

Not long after joining Dan and Gayle were asked to serve in the role of leading a Growth Group. They were excited with this opportunity to serve together in this ministry.

Dan And Gayle also had the privilege serving together as Growth Group Coaches from its commencement until 2020. They love working together to see people come to know Jesus and for them to grow in faith and maturity.

Dan Neville

Gayle and Dan have been married 37 years. They joined the Church with their 4 Boys Mark, Paul, Thomas, and Peter in 2010. (You may know Thomas & Melissa, Peter & Chloe for their participation in youth and other ministries).

Since then, they have been blessed and their family has grown to include 4 amazing daughters in-law and 2 grandchildren.

Dan is currently working as a police officer at the Carina Police Station.

Not long after joining the church Dan and Gayle were asked to serve in the role of leading a Growth Group. They were excited with this opportunity to serve together in this ministry.

After training apprentice leaders, the Group multiplied to create 2 Groups.

Dan has had the pleasure over those years to also meet with the men in those Growth Groups, this group has been an amazing encouragement to him and the other men. They meet over breakfast supporting each other through the different stages in life and discussing challenging books together.

Dan and Gayle also had the privilege of being Growth Group Coaches from its commencement until 2020. Gayle and Dan have a passion to see people come to know Jesus and for them to grow as they serve.

Wade Iedema

Wade is married to Rachel and has three sons who are involved with Living youth. He first joined Living Church in his senior high school years before going to Bible college some years later. After serving in ministries in NSW for around ten years he returned with his family to Living Church in 2011. He served in a paid media ministry position here for several years. He now serves as a growth group leader and helps out with Kids spots on Sundays.
